Teacher/Sponsor What to Know

What to Know

Sponsors are welcome at all Encounter activities, however, please be observant when going to classes. If it looks like a class already is full, please go to another class. Sponsors are not allowed in the dorms after lights out, unless given permission by the Head Counselor. Please remember that you are expected to uphold all the rules of the camp and notify the Director of Camp if you have any problems.

We do not have room at Encounter to provide housing for sponsors. You are responsible for finding your own housing.

Background Check

To better protect our campers, we are conducting background checks on all volunteers. This includes teachers, sponsors, spouses and interns. Information required for the background checks will be collected during the registration process. Sponsors that arrive without background checks will not be able to participate or help in class presentations until a background check is complete. You can go to this link to fill out the form online: <https://lubbockchristianuniversity.quickapp.pro/> and chose volunteer or you can print the Background Check form that came with your confirmation email and return to the office within 10 days.

Arrival and Departure

Check-in for Encounter will be in the Baker Conference Center, Sunday 2-5pm. There won't be early check-in on Saturday.

Housing

Boys and girls will check-in at the Baker Conference Center then proceed to get their room assignments. The girls will stay in Katie Rogers and the boys stay in Johnson Hall. All campers will be housed three to a room so please plan accordingly. We are not taking requests for roommates prior to camp starting. You will choose your roommate when you check in at the dorm.

If you arrive after 5:00 pm on Sunday, you will register in the Moody foyer after the Keynote speaker.

Checkout is between 8-9am Friday morning. Campers will check out with their counselor the morning camp closes. The camper will be responsible for any repair costs to damaged rooms.

Teacher/sponsor check-in

You can check in and pick up your bag during registration on Sunday. We will have a teacher/sponsor dinner and meeting on Sunday from 5:30-6:30 p.m. in the Baker.

All academic buildings have now been changed onto the new wireless. A guest network LCUGuest does not require an LCU logon. This is a network for internet access only. Wi-Fi is not available on all of the campus.

Teacher & Sponsor Dinners

The Teacher/Sponsor Registration & Welcome Dinner will be Sunday, June 9, in the Baker Conference Center at 5:30pm. Please make plans to attend.
